

I am a listener/supporter to K-LOVE, which has a local translator.
K-LOVE serves me through it unique and national programming that I would not be unable obtain otherwise.
In a rural community a translator is critical for this service and should have priority over LPFM.